Greet your fellow Adventurers with a hearty "sabah alkhyr" (good morning) as you enjoy a delicious breakfast and an orientation with your Adventure Guides.

Egyptian Museum with Egyptologist & King Tut Collection Viewing

Tour this esteemed museum, dedicated to preserving the past 7,000 years of Egyptian history, with an Egyptologist who will give you insight to the museum's exhibits.

Your private tour includes a viewing of the spectacular Pharaoh Tutankhamun Collection, which features a breathtaking array of treasures discovered in the tomb of the young boy who became Pharaoh at the age of 9. While the adults continue to delve into the King Tut exhibit, Junior Adventurers will learn more as they participate in a fun, interactive King Tut game.

Lunch at Al-Azhar Park

Dine in a gorgeous oasis in the urban desert where you will find yourself surrounded by traditional Islamic landscapes ripe with a variety flora, intersecting waterways, sunken gardens and bold Islamic geometric design. The park, which was a gift from Agha Khan IV, an ancestor of Cairo's founders, is listed as one of the world's 60 great public spaces by the Project for Public Spaces.

Old Cairo Tour with an Egyptologist

Led by a local Egyptologist, this excursion will take you to some of the most iconic and historic monuments in the city. Highlights of this fascinating tour include:

The Saladin Citadel of Cairo – a medieval fortification located near the center of Cairo which contains 3 main mosques. Also known as the Cairo Citadel, it is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Great Mosque of Muhammad Ali – located atop the summit of the citadel, this Ottoman mosque was built between 1830 – 1848 in honor of the memory of Tsun Pasha, the eldest son of Egypt's then-ruler, Muhammad Ali.

Welcome Dinner at Hotel with Local Entertainment

Share stories from your day with your fellow adventurers as you enjoy a delicious dinner at the hotel. You'll also be immersed in the culture as you enjoy Egyptian music performed by a local entertainer.

Great Pyramids, Solar Boat Museum, Photo Op at Sphinx, Khan el-Khalili Market

The Nile Ritz-Carlton, Cairo

Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner Included

Breakfast at the Hotel

Wake up to a tasty breakfast before beginning your day of Egyptian exploration in Giza.

Visit Giza with an Egyptologist

Learn about the history of this wondrous land from a local Egyptologist who will tell you about the surrounding sites of the Giza pyramid complex. Highlights include:

Great Pyramids – Stand in awe as you take in the sights of these archaeological feats, which includes the Great Pyramid of Giza, the oldest and largest of the 3 pyramids, as well as the only one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World still in existence.

Solar Boat Museum – Home to the Khufu solar ship, a preserved, full-sized vessel that was discovered in a sealed pit at the foot of the Great Pyramid of Giza.

Scenic Photo Stop – Snap a perfect pyramid pic to remember your amazing adventure to Giza.

Great Sphinx of Giza – Among the world’s largest sculptures, this mythical part-human, part-lion creature was carved from a single piece of limestone and measures 240 feet (73 metres) long and 66 feet (20 metres) high. Guests will have VIP access, which offers a private, uncrowded opportunity to see the Sphinx that is typically only available to visiting dignitaries.

Please note: Entrance fee to the Grand Gallery and King’s Chamber is included.

Lunch at Mena House Hotel

Savor a tasty buffet lunch at this luxury hotel that offers amazing views of the majestic Pyramids.

On Your Own Time at the Nile Ritz-Carlton, Cairo

Enjoy all of the outstanding amenities the hotel has to offer, including a spa, gym and Olympic-size pool with private cabanas.

Dinner at Naguib Mahfouz Restaurant in Old Cairo

Soak up the atmosphere at this restaurant located amid the Khan al-Khalili bazaar. Named after Egypt’s most celebrated novelist, the restaurant serves a selection of traditional Egyptian dishes.

Night Visit in Khan el-Khalili Market

No trip to Cairo is complete without a visit to Khan el-Khalili, a major souk, or marketplace, that was established in the 14th century. This Old Cairo landmark has beautiful examples of medieval Islamic architecture. Aside from the myriad of merchandise—from silverware to gold artifacts to ancient pharaonic souvenirs and so much more—you’ll find a bevy of old cafés, one of which dates back to 1797. It’s the perfect place to hunt for souvenirs for the White Elephant Game on board the ship.

Day 4

CAIRO, ASWAN, NILE RIVER

Activities Highlights:

Abu Simbel Visit, Begin Nile River Cruise, Elephantine Island & The First Cataract

M/S Tulip

Depart to Aswan & Abu Simbel

Journey on 2 short flights from Cairo to Aswan, and then from Aswan to Abu Simbel.

Abu Simbel Temples Tour

Tour these massive, iconic rock temples located on Lake Nasser near a Nubian village in Upper Egypt. The temple complex, part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site known as the “Nubian Monuments,” contains twin temples carved out of the mountainside in the 13th century BC. The temples were created as monuments to the Pharaoh Ramesses II and his queen, Nefertari, as a commemoration of his victory at the Battle of Kadesh.

Depart to Aswan

Following your tour of Abu Simbel, take a short flight back to Aswan and arrive in time for lunch.

Lunch at Old Cataract Hotel

Dine in true Nile style on the edge of the Nubian Desert at this luxury hotel wrapped in a 19th-century Victorian palace.

Transfer to M/S Tulip

Check-In to the M/S Tulip, the ship you will be cruising down the Nile River—and your home for the next 3 nights. Cruise the Nile in style as you enjoy deluxe staterooms with French balconies, 3 dining venues, a sundeck swimming pool and a fitness center complete with sauna, Jacuzzi and massage room!

Felucca Sailing on Nile River

Board a felucca—a traditional wooden sailing boat used in the protected waters of the Red Sea and eastern Mediterranean—and set sail for Elephantine Island where you’ll sail to the first cataract, a shallow length of the Nile River where a series of massive, elephant-shaped boulders jut out of the river bed.

Dinner On Board the Ship

Join your fellow Adventurers for your first meal aboard the M/S Tulip.

White Elephant Game & Nubian Folkloric Show

Kick off a fun Nile River cruise with a White Elephant Game with the souvenirs you got at the Khan el-Khalili market. Plus, immerse yourself in local cultures with a performance by a Nubian Folkloric group and treat yourself to a traditional henna hand tattoo.

Day 5

NILE RIVER

M/S Tulip

Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner Included

Breakfast on the Ship

Have a hearty breakfast to get energized for the adventure-filled day ahead.

Temple of Isis at Philae Visit with Egyptologist

Take a guided tour, along with the local Egyptologist, to the Temple of Isis at Philae, which honors the goddess Isis, an important figure who was known as the giver of life. You will also visit the Aswan stone quarry which is home to the unfinished obelisk, the largest known ancient obelisk which was never erected due to a large crack in the stone.

BBQ Buffet Lunch on the Ship

Have a delicious BBQ lunch aboard the ship with your fellow Adventurers.

Junior Adventurer Hieroglyphics Activity

Junior Adventurers will head to the ship's lounge where they will learn to write their name using hieroglyphics.

Temple of Kom Ombo Visit with an Egyptologist

Discover the Temple of Kom Ombo, built between 180 – 47 BC and was unique due to its “double” design that featured rooms, courts, halls and sanctuaries for 2 gods. The northern half of the temple was dedicated to Horus, the falcon god, while the southern half was dedicated to the crocodile god, Sobek.

Junior Adventurers Dinner at Private Venue

Junior Adventurers can spend some time together to trade stories about all the amazing things they've done while digging into a child-friendly meal.

Adult Dinner

Adult Adventurers can relax and enjoy the company of fellow adults to bond over a delicious meal and shared tales of adventure.

Disney Movie Night in Ship's Lounge

Everyone is invited to the ship's lounge to relax and watch a Disney movie with new friends and family.
